About the lunch pub: Pilgrims will register at different times, and head into the centre of Salisbury in small groups once done. So, the King's Head, which is a Wetherspoon's pub, and the timings given are just a suggestion for lunch, but it is where the orange arrows will lead. The arrows from the pub to the cathedral will appear once the leaders have lunched! Feel free to make your own arrangements for lunch elsewhere.

THE IMPORTANT THING IS THAT WE GATHER AT THE CATHEDRAL AT 13.00 for the INDUCTION SERVICE.

Registration: St Paul's Church Foyer, Fisherton St, Salisbury, SP2 7QW (Please do not arrive before this time)

Suggested Lunch: The King's Head Inn, 1 Bridge Street, Salisbury, SP1 2ND

Profile (Scale 0 to 500 ft): Each day the route card shows the route profile. But don't be misled: be aware that it is a different scale each day! Today's walk is mostly along the Avon Valley Path so has long flat stretches but also a couple of hills. They are small compared to what is to come later in the pilgrimage but the first includes a steep climb up steps so provides good early training!

Overnight destination Hall: Redlynch Village Hall, Vicarage Rd, Lover, Salisbury, SP5 2PG

A&B Pilgrimage History : Salisbury was the destination of our 2008 pilgrimage, and the 1978, 1991 and 1999 pilgrimages passed through it, but this year is the first time that we have headed south out of Salisbury directly along the Avon Valley Path.

Let's have a safe and enjoyable pilgrimage! Please read these notes carefully BEFORE YOU JOIN THE PILGRIMAGE; they will help you prepare.

Safety is everyone's responsibility. The organisers try to minimise the risks to us all, for example by finding safe crossing points on busy roads, but ultimately we must all look after ourselves, and be mindful of others.

Please also read the 'Safety and Safeguarding and Risk Assessments' file that will be available throughout the pilgrimage.

PLEASE READ THE EQUIPMENT LIST THAT IS INCLUDED WITH THIS PACK.

The Pilgrimage "family". We are living as a nomadic community, and it is important that we share the workload involved in this so please be ready to help move luggage, set up tables, pack the van, make filled rolls, tidy the hall and kitchens as necessary.

Luggage: as stated in the equipment list, you may bring 2 items of luggage in addition to your day pack.

- If you bring a single kit bag (ideally a holdall but soft suitcases and internally-framed rucksacks are OK) it should weigh no more than 17kg (37lb). You (and those loading / unloading) will have to carry it – possibly up and down stairs. If your bag is overweight, it will not be carried. If, for travel by train, you find it easier to put everything in one bag, then bring a lightweight bag to transfer some clothing into. You don't need 2 weeks' worth of clothes as there are launderettes on both rest days; try to choose clothes that are light in weight, easy to wash, and comfortable.
- Your bedding, consisting of a sleeping bag, mat or airbed and small pillow, should be packed separately. These should be in a stuff sack and compressed as far as possible. Black bin liners are unsuitable as they do not compress and they rip too easily. If you must use them, bring replacement bags and ensure you have strapping around them.
- Bring a 'Shoe bag' or something similar to keep your eating equipment in, which will be carried separately in the van in large crates for easy morning packing.
- Pack bags in a way that they'd survive airport baggage handling - no dangly bits.
- Musicians may also bring a musical instrument (within reason) on condition that they play it.

Safety in Halls: we will often be a fairly large number in a relatively confined space, with equipment spread out over the floor. Please pay attention to any gangways identified by the organisers, which are intended to allow safe movement around the accommodation, even in darkness. Try to avoid letting luggage spill into these areas. Remember all halls are smoke-free zones; this is a legal requirement.

Safety near Heat: the risk from hot items in the kitchen is pretty self-evident, but be aware of the risk of scalding around the tea urn, when manoeuvring hot drinks around the hall, and when meals are being served.

Weather: the wonderful British weather has so much to offer us: from sunburn and dehydration to a thorough soaking and wind-chill. Make sure you carry (and wear) appropriate clothing, and apply (and re-apply) suitable sun protection. You should also carry, and drink, water: although a car meets us where possible, don't rely on drinks being available.

Keep your eyes open: it's all too easy to get engrossed in conversation or thought and to trip over uneven terrain. It's painful and embarrassing. Also, watch out for the orange arrows that mark our way: in broad terms, you should always be able to see at least one ahead of you. If you don't see any arrows, don't carry on regardless, double check everything and if necessary retrace your steps to ensure you are on the right path.

Keep your ears open too: if you like to listen to music through headphones when walking, make sure you can still hear what's going on around you—traffic noise or other pilgrims trying to attract your attention.

Stay in Touch: make sure you have the route cards and the key contact phone numbers with you at all times. If you are helping with the front or back marking, make sure that at least one person in the group has a mobile phone (turned on) and that the number is known to the support team.

To look after yourself & others, please follow the route indicated by the arrows. Be aware that the pilgrim in front may have missed an arrow showing a change of direction. If so, please tell them - Loudly. Always allow the front markers 10 to 15 minutes to get ahead and mark the route clearly. If you get close, please wait and allow them to get ahead again. Remember to carry the alternative transport sheet and route cards. The drinks car will have a daily register. For your safety please tick against your name so the organisers know that you have stopped at the Drinks Car.

Always inform the Drinks Car should you decide to take an alternative way.

If you have cold symptoms, keep it to yourself.

Should an accident happen: ask for help from the nearest Pilgrim. If the problem prevents you walking any further, ring the Co-ordinator. Assistance in travelling to the next hall will be arranged a.s.a.p.

If the accident is serious, call the emergency services and also inform the Co-ordinator.

The Support Car's primary role is one of safety, in case of a real emergency; it's not a taxi service for tired pilgrims. If you need to drop out, inform the drinks car and use public transport. When there is no public transport the support car may, at the driver's discretion, take you to the nearest bus stop.

BOOTS OFF! To keep sleeping areas clean, always remove boots before entering the hall and do not put them on again until leaving the premises.

SILENT HOURS: Sleep is important to all pilgrims; some like to go to bed and to rise early, others late. Respect tired people's need for a full night's sleep. Lights out and rise times will be announced daily; between these hours a strict rule of SILENCE applies EVERYWHERE within the building, including washrooms and toilets. The half hour prior to lights out and after rise time is QUIET TIME, so keep noise to a minimum. Always inflate your air bed well before lights out. A communal air pump is available—please take your airbed to the pump, don't move the pump. If you wish to get up, up to 30 minutes before rise time, please ensure ABSOLUTE SILENCE during this time. Unpack what you need the night before - rustling plastic bags can be very annoying to slumbering pilgrims!

DO NOT SET AN ALARM CLOCK.

Announcements: Assist each other to listen by being as silent as possible.

Mobile Phones: As noted elsewhere, mobile phones are an important part of our safety strategy. But a phone ringing at the wrong time can be irritating: please keep your phone off or silent during services and at night.

Lunchtime Pubs: We have permission to eat our own food discreetly at many of the lunch stops (please see route cards and listen to daily notices) but it is expected that everyone using the pub will buy a drink there; don't consume your own drinks.

RECOMMENDED EQUIPMENT LIST (and a few tips)

Given that there are 2 rest days during the course of the pilgrimage, which will provide the opportunity to visit a launderette, you only need to bring sufficient clothing to last for 4 or 5 days (but bear in mind that if there is a lot of rain, or it is very hot, you may wish to change into fresh clothing every day).

WALKING BOOTS & SOCKS “light-weight” boots made with Gore-tex or similar upper surfaces should suffice, but “full leather” boots offer better ankle support and perform better in very wet or muddy conditions. Take a spare pair of laces too. Occasionally, the conditions will allow trainers or trekking sandals to be worn. Whether you wear 2 pairs of “ordinary” socks, or walking socks (there is a huge range available these days) is a personal choice. Walking socks should be washed after every 3 to 4 full days of walking to retain their properties.

LIGHT SHOES OR PLIMSOLLS (& SOCKS) For evening wear (and occasionally on the walk if advised that the conditions are suitable).

TROUSERS / SHORTS Jeans are unsuitable in rain; skirts and shorts don't protect legs from brambles, nettles etc. There are plenty of walking trousers now available that dry very quickly when they get wet. Include a pair of trousers for evening wear.

SHIRTS / BLOUSES / T-SHIRTS / UNDERWEAR Sufficient to reach the next launderette! A mix of long and short sleeved tops can be useful to cope with varying weather.

SLEEPING BAG of the quilted type plus a SINGLE inflatable airbed or sleeping mat. Please do not bring anything too bulky - airbeds should deflate completely and sleeping mats should roll up fully.

PYJAMAS OR NIGHTDRESS something suitable for community life!

WASHING GEAR & TOWEL shaving adapter (if you use an electric shaver).

Two unbreakable plates including a deep one (or a plate and bowl), mug, knife, fork, spoon (and teaspoon), and tea towel plus an identifiable drawstring bag to keep it all in.

LABELLED KIT BAG Other than what you want in your backpack, your gear should be packed in no more than 2 pieces of luggage. Travelling to the pilgrimage may be easier with 1 larger bag, but packing a 2nd smaller one to distribute the weight makes packing the van easier for transporting our bags between halls;

THE TOTAL WEIGHT OF YOUR BAG(S) MUST NOT EXCEED 17KG. Holdalls are preferable to suitcases and less easily damaged, and framed rucksacks are very difficult to pack. Your sleeping bag and mat can be additional to this. Don't bring more than you can lift: YOU might be helping to load the van.

DAY BACKPACK Large enough for the essentials, but don't overburden yourself.

JUMPER or PULLOVER / WATERPROOF COAT & OVER-TROUSERS These should be carried in your backpack in case of need. The coat and over-trousers need to be both wind and water proof (have you reproofed them, if you have had them for some time?), and should allow perspiration to “wick” away.

OTHER ITEMS FOR THE BACKPACK Sandwich box or plastic bags, first aid kit, including a crepe bandage and safety pin in case of sprains, and a blister kit , torch and spare batteries, compass, sunglasses, sunhat, sunblock, gaiters (in case of very wet conditions), spare boot laces, map case, water bottle.

MAPS A small-scale road map of the area may be helpful in case you have to make your own way. The Ordnance Survey Landranger and Explorer maps provide more detail. Your route cards tell you the relevant sheets and refer to co-ordinates on these maps so that you can tell exactly which points the pilgrimage passes through, unless we have to deviate unexpectedly! Carry the relevant map for the day in your backpack.

OTHER USEFUL ITEMS handkerchiefs, a pillow, a universal sink plug, swimming costume, spending money (for lunchtime and evening drinks, optional rest day activities, fares for buses and trains should you need to use public transport, and for your own needs), trekking pole(s), padlock for kit bag, carrier bags (to keep clean and dirty clothes separate or wear over muddy boots when temporarily indoors – two large rubber bands complete the trick). Personal medicine (remember to disclose this on your confidential health form).

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS If you play a portable musical instrument and would like to bring it along to help with our liturgies and general jollification, you are welcome to bring this at your own risk.

 You should be able to obtain a blister kit at a good chemist. Apart from “own brand” products, brands to look out for are Coughlan, Compeed, and Spenco. Avoidance is better than cure: toughen up your feet with some preliminary walks. See overleaf for some sensible preparatory exercises.

STRETCHING EXERCISES

Perform these slowly, moving towards the end of the range of motion till mild tension is felt in the muscle.
Stop at this point and hold for 10 – 15 secs
