You must make your own independent arrangements to travel to Arundel and home from Guildford.

Arundel Cathedral is $\frac{3}{4}$ mile and Guildford Cathedral $\frac{1}{2}$ mile walk from their respective mainline stations. Details of train services can be found online. Travel from Guildford to Arundel is via Havant & Barnham, or via Gatwick, or Clapham Junction. Change trains respectively at these stations. Via Havant is probably the best route if no engineering works. Allow at least 2½ hours travelling time.

Driving, allow 1 $\frac{1}{4}$ hours, each way, to include parking.

Walk details will be available on the website www.thepilgrims.org.uk nearer the time.

Pilgrimages are organised by past pilgrims on a voluntary basis.*
